Bare Stage Theatre Presents:

Lips Together, Teeth Apart

by Terrence McNally

“Ambitious, Poignant and Riotously Funny”

A beachside home on Fire Island proves a strange setting for two straight couples -- sister and brother Chloe and Sam, and their spouses John and Sally-- on the Fourth of July. Upon his recent death from AIDS, Sally's brother David bequeathed her the Fire Island house, surrounded by friendly, partying gay neighbors on either side of the fence. Lips Together, Teeth Apart, a 'Dark Comedy' by Terrence McNally, is a powerful look inside dissolving marriages, lost hopes and dreams, and the looming, capricious nature of death.
