

Jimmy Barto
December 22nd, 1957 to February 19th, 2020

We had a great time with the band last Tuesday night never for a minute thinking it would Jimmy's last night... we are in as much shock as everyone... my wife and I drove him home after the gig and it was the last we would see him... he will always be in our hearts and minds.

Bless you Jimmy Barto and Rest In Peace...

The Great American Songbook will be doing our own tribute to Jimmy on Tuesday night at La Bodega... Jimmy would be the first to say, "The show must go on".

For the week of February 24th to March 1st, 2020

The show is called CineMusic and has lots of great movie music, from such movies as Gladiator, Godfather, Ghost, Dirty Dancing, Pearl Harbor, Disney and Armageddon. Everyone from Fred Astaire in 1935 to Lady Gaga in 2018. It is light-hearted with just a bit of narration and very moving as well. And there will be a surprise appearance by Marilyn Monroe. (Guess who?).

I am heartbroken over Jimmy Barto's passing and will miss him a whole lot. Doing this newsletter tonight has been a strain but life goes on.

Get out and see all the performers that are "busting their butts" for your entertainment... you don't know but one day another won't be there doing their thing AND it's all for you... the audience!

I look forward to seeing you somewhere... SOON!

Regards,

Francis Dryden
