will NEVER go out
of style.

And that's the whole truth...
And nothin' but the truth!

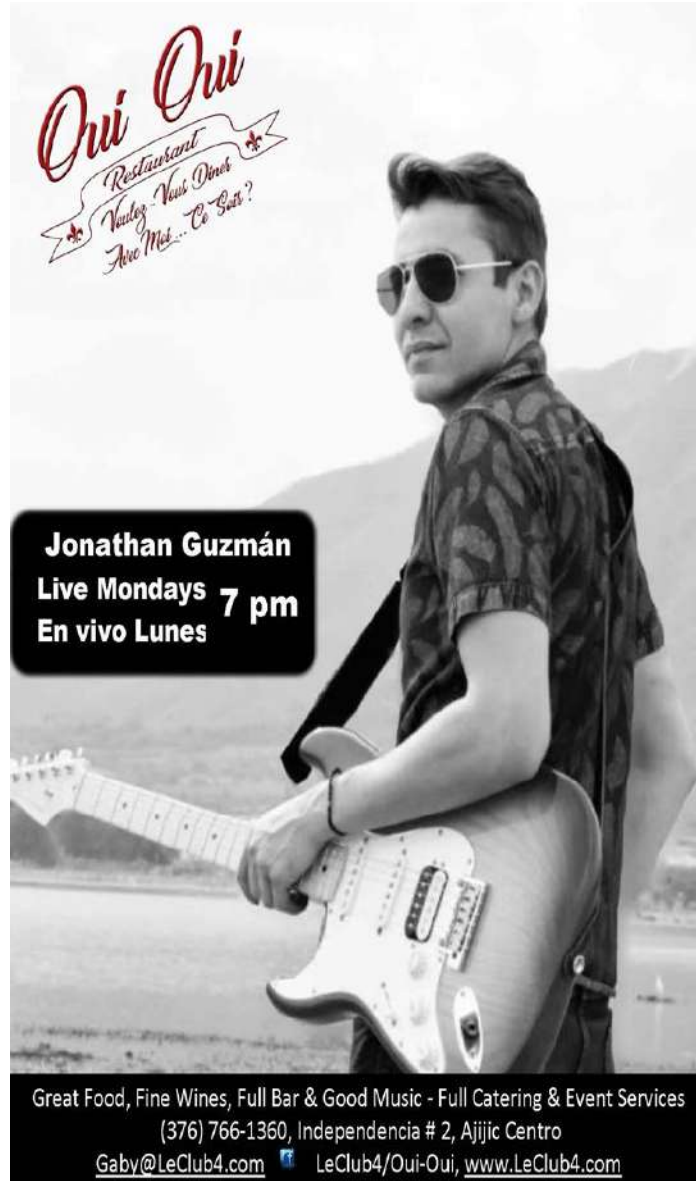

It may seem like that's never going to happen again... but watch and see! There will always be people that want to watch TV and go to bed at 8 o'clock and that's OK; but, there are those that would like go out to a club, see their friends, have a bite and a few drinks, get in a few dances and just enjoy the joy around them.

We've been getting out and it is great to see people doing the same!... Have fun, take care and I look forward to seeing you somewhere...
SOON!

"Always try to Have Fun!"

LAKESIDE LITTLE THEATRE PRESENTS!

While you've been watching YouTube, we've been creating it!

Although we have been closed for business since mid-March because of COVID-19, we have been looking for ways to keep you connected to theatre in general and Lakeside Little Theatre in particular. We are pleased to present:

The Importance of Being Earnest* by Oscar Wilde directed by David Goldman

The project was filmed and edited by Wayne Willis Waterman, who is presently in Portland, using the Zoom and OBS Ninja platforms. To enhance realism, JeanMarie Harmon managed the teleprompter, which allowed the actors to look in the camera. The cast, who mostly performed independently from their homes, includes:

- Donna Burroughs as Miss Prism
- Richard Cohn-Lee as Merriman
- Mark Donaldson as John Worthing
- Marsha Carson Heaton as Lady Bracknell
- Mark Heaton as Lane
- Johanna Labadie as Cecily Cardew
- Dave McIntosh as Rev. Canon Chasuble

- Devin VanDomelin as Gwendolen Fairfax
- Wayne Willis Waterman as Algernon Moncrief

We hope you enjoy this production, which is just under two hours. You can view it on our YouTube channel by clicking on the link below.

If you are interested in being a part of Lakeside Little Theatre, either backstage or onstage, please contact us at volunteer@lakesidelittletheatre.com.

As part of our Playhouse – Actors Studio series, Lakeside Little Theatre is pleased to announce our next event:

All the Web's a Stage:

Improv session on Zoom!

No experience necessary

This two hour session is limited to 10 participants -
one per Zoom screen

When: Wednesday, August 19, 2020, starting at 3:00

Participants are expected to participate!

Deadline for registering is August 17, 2020.

To join us, make a reservation at:
playhouserervations@lakesidelittletheatre.com

You are only considered as a registered participant when you receive a confirmation email.

Improvisational theatre, often called improvisation or improv, is the form of theatre, often comedy, in which most or all of what is performed is unplanned or unscripted: created spontaneously by the performers. The afternoon session will be comprised of various exercises to hone your listening skills, ability to react and use your creativity. Yes and, the emphasis is on having fun! The login details for the Zoom session will be sent to participants on the morning of the 19th. You'll need to download the app on your tablet or phone from your app store. If you'll be using your laptop or desktop computer, to sign up go to <https://zoom.us/>.

The saying from improv is “bring a brick, not a cathedral.” Basically, a successful improviser should come into a scene with an open mind instead of demanding that their scene partner follow their lead. Collaboration is key.
