

Van Morrison has officially “Had it”...
With Covid-19 restrictions!

We’ve known that for a while, even before the singing/songwriting legend announced a trio of “anti-lockdown protest songs” after penning a “Save Live Music” essay urging a return to full-capacity live concert performances.

Today, the third such song in his series of protest anthems was made available, and “No More Lockdown” doesn’t bother with subtlety:

*No more lockdown
No more government overreach
No more fascist police
Disturbing our peace
No more taking of our freedom
And our God-given rights
Pretending it’s for our safety
When it’s really to enslave
Who’s running our country?
Who’s running our world?*

There are two more similar releases have been done and are on YouTube called “Born To Be Free” and “As I Walked Out”... rock and roll legend Eric Clapton has joined Van Morrison against the government-imposed coronavirus lockdowns in the U.K.

Both artists have deep and well documented music roots the U.K. music scene, where government restrictions are apparently killing the live music industry.

“Always Have Fun!”

Folks! Please remember when you go out to ANY of the above... when you are not sitting at a table... WEAR YOUR MASK! If the officials come along they will close down the venue in a heartbeat!

I don't believe in masks either but it really bothers me to see people up dancing, table hopping, using the facilities, entering or leaving with no regard to the owners, workers or musicians in the club... not smart and not cute!

See you somewhere... SOON!

Francis Dryden
