

“Most musicians who are fortunate enough to live to 80 and older are no longer able to play sports, run races, or lift weights. But most are still able to play their instruments of choice regularly. Music - truly a lifelong passion.”

Not quite 80 yet...
Will 79 work?... You betcha!

THE Bravo!
THEATRE

Line of THINK production

Have you ever imagined yourself as a character from a play?
Perhaps your character would meet a character from some other play in a cafe for an evening of what would become yet another play entirely.
That is precisely what Brian Friel's brilliantly droll take on Andrey from Three Sisters and Sonya from Uncle Vanya accomplishes.

It is so deftly written that audiences need not be familiar with either of Chekov's plays. That's just more of the beauty of the piece. Andrey and Sonya have lived twenty years beyond their original theatrical lives, maturing into full-fledged humans with lives full of hopes and disappointments.

Two characters from different plays, their lives radiating with a past and present. Perhaps even a future."

Tickets are $350MXN. Reservations can be made at mymytickets@gmail.com or tickets purchased from It's Kinda Bazar... and Mia's Boutique.

Masks are Mandatory - period.
Audience size is limited and the theatre is not entirely enclosed - most of the back is completely open above the wall of the theatre.

Please note - the address is 441 Hidalgo in RIBERAS del PILAR. Google maps and I have been in a fight over the proper location for over 2 years -
I plan on winning - but it may be posthumously!

There will be talkbacks after the performances on Sun Nov 7th and Sat Nov 13th for those who wish to learn more or discuss the show with cast Roseann and Anthony Wilshere and director Bernadette Jones.
