

One of the most special things about being a musician are the relationships we develop with people that www.musiciansunite.com without music we would've never even met.

This is a very true statement... I saw this and immediately thought of many people that I have met and played with over the years because of music!

Many of them are gone now including a couple down here that I am sure you will all remember... that great harp player and all around entertainer, Jay Shuffle, who I played with for a few years as well as the great Jimmy Barto, a fine trumpet player who use to "bring the house down" with his great renditions of Louie Armstrong tunes.

The next time you are in La Bodega there are great drawings of both of the above on the wall... they are done by a professional illustrator by the name of Randy Metcalf who use to live here at Lakeside!

Miss those guys and all the hundreds of great guys I have had the privilege to play with over the years.

We want to believe that serendipity brings us together, but is that just a myth? Mining the comedy of missed connections, This Random World asks the serious question of how often we travel parallel paths through the world without noticing. From an ailing woman who plans one final trip, to her daughter planning one great escape and her son falling prey to a prank gone wrong, this funny, intimate, and heartbreaking play explores the lives that may be happening just out of reach of our own.

Performance times:

Both Saturday and Sunday matinees are 4:00 p.m.

For further details, see www.lakesidelittletheatre.com.
