LIVE THEATRE

News Update:

Proof of vaccination will no longer be required according to Jalisco guidelines. However, masks are still required when in indoor areas of the theatre.

Meet the director of Cake Walk Comments by Collette Clavadetscher

Lakeside Little Theatre had a tradition pre-COVID of hosting a kick-off party before the season opened. This gave all the directors an opportunity to talk about their plays and give our season ticket holders a glimpse of what each play is about. With COVID restrictions, that wasn't possible this year. So, in an effort to give each director an opportunity to speak about their play, brief videos were produced and our patrons can get a similar sense about the story. Cut and paste the video link below to hear what Collette has to say about this hilarious, farcical comedy.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kkmUkiog5HY>

Cake Walk is the final play of the season, performing from March 25 through April 3 (except Monday, March 28). Collette Clavadetscher directs the cast of seven. Light fare to end the season, Cake Walk is set in a small Canadian town, where contestants in a baking competition vie for coveted prizes, on July 1, 1984 (Canada Day): a time before cell phones, social media, and COVID!

Tickets are currently on sale. Purchases at the box office will be possible on March 23, 24, 30 and 31 from 10:00 to noon, as well as one hour before each performance. Tickets are 300 pesos each.
