

From a great musician friend in Canada...
To all my great musician friends in Mexico!

Early one day, a C, an E-flat, and a G go into a bar. The bartender says: "Sorry, but we don't serve minors." So the E-flat leaves, and the C and the G have an open fifth between them. After a few drinks, the fifth is diminished and the G is out flat. An F comes in and tries to augment the situation, but is not sharp enough. Later, a D comes into the bar and heads straight for the bathroom saying, "Excuse me. I'll just be a second." Then an A comes into the bar, but the bartender is not convinced that this relative of C is not a minor. Then the bartender notices a B-flat hiding at the end of the bar and exclaims, "Get out, now. You're the seventh minor I've found in this bar tonight." The E-flat, not easily deflated, comes back to the bar the next night in a 3-piece suit with nicely shined shoes. The bartender (who used to have a nice corporate job until his company downsized) says, "You're looking sharp tonight, come on in! This could be a major development." This proves to be the case, as the E-flat takes off the suit, and everything else, and stands there au natural. Eventually, the C sobers up, and realizes in horror that he's under a rest. The C is brought to trial, is found guilty of contributing to the diminution of a minor, and is sentenced to 10 years of DS without Coda at an upscale correctional facility. On appeal, however, the C is found innocent of any wrongdoing, even accidental, and that all accusations to the contrary are bassless. The bartender decides, however, that since he's only had tenor so patrons, with the soprano out in the bathroom, and everything has become alto much treble, he needs a rest, and closes the bar.

Have a great week and I'll see you somewhere... SOON!

Always Have Fun!!

LIVE

You can purchase your tickets online for our next Readers Theatre performance of Season 58: Four Dogs and a Bone. The box office will be open an hour before each performance, as well as on July 13 and 14 during season ticket sales from 10:00 to 1:00. Please note that we have reverted to our matinee show times and the new price is below.

Friday, July 15, 2022
Saturday, July 16, 2022 and
Sunday, July 17, 2022

All shows at 4:00
Tickets 200 pesos

A witty satire of the movie business. Though it is biting and cruelly critical it is also very funny – and that's probably why it ran for 230 performances when it premiered in New York in 1993.

Four Dogs and a Bone is a brutal satire that attempts to expose the shallowness of the movie business. Its Four Dogs are happy to eat each other to get better billing or exposure. Through the use of irony coupled with light comedy, we see a real sense of Shanley's contempt for what the silver screen does to those who want to conquer the world through it.

Tickets for Four Dogs and a Bone are 200 pesos – you can get them by:

Going to our website and ordering online.

Visiting the LLT box office one hour before curtain.

- Season Tickets for Season 58 -
Renewal emails coming to you soon!

The season line-up, including plays and dates, was announced in March and a minor change was made since then. Twelfth Night will replace Taming of the Shrew as our Shakespeare offering in November.

If you had a season ticket for Season 57, then you will soon be receiving an email asking if you want to renew the exact same seats for the same night for Season 58 and instructing you how you can pay for this online. You will also have a chance to change your seat or day, dependent on availability, prior to committing. Any desired changes should be requested by replying to this email or write to tickets@lakesidelittletheatre.com prior to coming to the box office to facilitate your purchase. The box office will be open on July 13 and 14 so that people can also renew in person. You can also decide not to renew -- but then you'd miss out on a great season!

In July emails will be sent to people who had season tickets in Season 55 but didn't renew, mainly due to COVID concerns. Reservations will be made for them closest to the seats they had in the 2019-2020 season. Again, they can simply renew by finalizing the purchase, opt to change seat or day by replying to this email or write to tickets@lakesidelittletheatre.com, or alternatively decide not to renew. The box office will be open again on July 27 and 28 to execute purchases.

After renewals have been processed, an announcement will go out to the general email list in early August allowing people to purchase season tickets online or come to the box office on two dates in August, to be announced closer to the dates.

SEASON & PRICING:

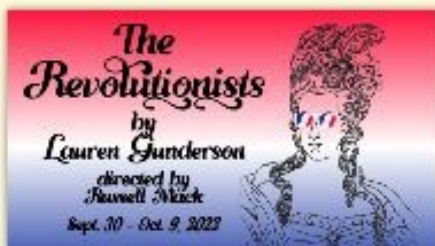

The upcoming season has five shows - four plays and a musical - at a price of 1,300 pesos for all 5 MainStage shows, and a 300 peso theatre membership. Individual show tickets are being increased from 300 for plays to 350 and from 350 to 400 for the musical. A season ticket affords you a savings of 100 pesos on each show plus a free membership!

If you have any questions, please reply to this email.
