

This was on Facebook tonight...
Very serious for a diabetic!!

Please say a prayer for Chelo tonight! Chelo has diabetes and if you know anything about this affliction you know that this foot infection is not a good thing

You also may not understand just how important that right foot is to a drummer and Chelo is one of the best drummers you will see!

Get that handled Chelo and let's get you out of those sandals!

Chelo is also a very excellent artist... We have 6 of his superb works now and would always like more!

Get better quick my friend and let me know how you are when you can!

Sinceramente
Francis

A witty satire of the movie business. Though it is biting and cruelly critical it is also very funny – and that’s probably why it ran for 230 performances when it premiered in New York in 1993.

Four Dogs and a Bone is a brutal satire that attempts to expose the shallowness of the movie business. Its Four Dogs are happy to eat each other to get better billing or exposure. Through the use of irony coupled with light comedy, we see a real sense of Shanley's contempt for what the silver screen does to those who want to conquer the world through it.

Tickets for Four Dogs and a Bone are 200 pesos – you can get them by:

Going to our website and ordering online.

Visiting the LLT box office one hour before curtain.
