

Roy “Bim” Forbes

Think of all the people you never would have met without music and, of course, theatre and all forms of entertainment... be a pretty lonely old place this old world !

Now after about 68 years of playing I love looking back at some of the amazing people I have had the pleasure to play with and enjoy. I was just listening to a couple of tunes from a guy I first met when he was about 14 years old by the name of Roy Forbes... we called him Bim... who use to hang around with my band. Bim had his share of problems... muscles were missing in one side of his neck and he lost his left eye due to glaucoma and wore a prosthetic. I left that town in 1970 and so did Bim... he struck off for Vancouver, B. C. to follow his musical dreams... and bless his heart... he did very well.

He has a street named after him in his home town now, hundreds of recordings, a wife who loves him and it is estimated that he has made around $3 million dollars. He is completely blind now but at 69 years of age... he is still “cranking out” the tunes!

Great job Bim!

Always Have Fun!!

A promotional poster for a radio show. The background is a close-up, high-contrast photograph of a man with long, wavy blonde hair and a beard, looking down. He is holding a guitar, with the neck and strings visible in the lower right. The lighting is warm, with yellow and orange tones. In the top right corner, there are two white rectangular boxes with black text: "$50 PESO" and "COVER". The main text is in a stylized, gothic-like font. "Iron Horse" is in white with a black outline. Below it, "presents" is in a smaller, yellow, sans-serif font inside a dark oval. "Daniel Cordero" is in a large, white, distressed font. At the bottom, a yellow banner contains the text "SUNDAYS 3-6PM" in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters.
