

"Without local music, there would be
www.musiciansinfo.com
NO MUSIC."

There are those that don't believe this...
They could well be wrong!

There are some people in high places that didn't work their way up to that but instead were picked for one reason or another... but in most cases the stars you see got there the hard way... they earned it!

I think we are very lucky here to have a whole lot of talented musicians... some from other places but many locals. Your support of this talent is what will end up taking them places or at least giving them a decent living.

I had a taste of the "road" and "touring" and it was pretty exciting at the time... but I decided to "go home" and get a good group, make some money, and get a day job too... it worked out for me but I put in some awful hours I'll tell you.

A lot of the musicians down here make their living from playing... it's a small place and tough to make a buck... give 'em all the support you can and when one of them hit it right... you were part of their success.

Have a great week out there and above all... have fun!

Always Have Fun!!
