

Two of the top Entertainers in town... Are having big medical problems!

No doubt in my mind that both Sergio Casas and Chelo González are the best and busiest entertainers in the area and they both have some very serious medical issues that are going to keep them away for a while.

Lots will “jump” in to try an “fill their boots” but that’s not going to be that successful. If you get the chance to make a donation (or two) to their many fundraisers that are going on with their many musical friends and fans... do. My account for this purpose is open at O’Rourke’s and the number is 5057575... just see Suzy and ask for my Keep it Live at Lakeside account.

You will notice there are fewer ads than usual and I must admit that I am not pleased... some of the entertainers decided to go on holiday (or whatever) and didn’t say a thing about it... ticks me off big time... they can let me know and send graphics when they get back. As far as the clubs... there are only a couple that keep sending me stuff! I must admit that in all my years in business (and particularly the music business which I’ve been in for 68 years) I have NEVER passed up on free advertising... especially with the following I have (and appreciate).

I don’t chase around after ads and I have a deadline (Saturday) but my Sunday nights and Monday AM’s have been getting this little newsletter put together and sending 1,800+ e-mails out and getting it posted on 5 web sites. It’s my 80th birthday in August and with some of the lack of interest I am seriously considering packing it in.

Well so much for my thoughts for this week and life will go on... see you somewhere... SOON!

Francis
