

“Any musician who tells you that it’s always fun is either lying to you or hasn’t been a musician very long.

www.musiciansunite.com

The truth is being a musician won’t always be easy or be fun, but it will ALWAYS be worth it. It’s a life very well spent.”

There’s a whole bunch of truth... in that meme!!

Having played music for a lifetime I can attest to this statement... BUT there are a few things that drive me up the wall playing with different people. One of the first (and worst) things that come to mind is when someone in the band starts a tune (too slow or too fast) and turns around to the drummer and says “speed it up!” or “slow it down”! I spent most of my life as a drummer keeping good time... this is a big time amateur... start the bloody song over and let me count it in.

Another thing that drives me nuts is “noodling”... That’s when one of the guys in the band starts running up and down his fret board or the drummer crashing away at some “lick”... Terrible!

And a thing I really detest is “trash can” endings for songs... Those are the ones (usually a guitar player or a drummer) thrash away after the tune is done for about 10 seconds or so.

Always Have Fun!!

Expect a mix of instrumental & vocal music, with different flavors inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, beautiful waltzes, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'!
