

“Any musician who tells you that it’s always fun is either lying to you or hasn’t been a musician very long.

www.musiciansunite.com

The truth is being a musician won’t always be easy or be fun, but it will ALWAYS be worth it. It’s a life very well spent.”

I started playing for money at 12...
I’m 80 and those are true words!!

This is absolutely the truth! Many times over those years I can guarantee you I wasn’t having fun! There are thousands of things that can and do go all wrong and even though it may not have been your fault... you are going to wear it.

Try travelling in an old beat up school bus for a gig in Dawson City (in the Yukon) from Whitehorse (also in the Yukon) and be about half way and in the middle of nowhere and the old bus breaks down... finished! As luck would have it after about an hour a truck came along and towed us over 100 miles into Dawson City, dropped the old bus behind the place we were playing AND didn’t charge us a dime... he said buy me a beer sometime! The bus is more than likely still in Dawson City and a guy took us the 300 miles back to Whitehorse after the weekend (we played 3 nights at a casino up there) in response to our pleas of an idea how we could get back as we were on for a 6 nighter in Whitehorse on the Monday night!... as the old saying goes... Lady Luck knows no bounds. We tried to pay the guy that took us back and he said “nope... I’m heading that way anyway!” All worked out in the end! (Glad it wasn’t winter!!!).

See you somewhere... SOON!... Francis

Expect a mix of instrumental & vocal music, with different flavors inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, beautiful waltzes, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'!
