Shrine Club Ribfest revival rocks

By Dale Hoyt Palfrey

The Lake Chapala Shrine Club (LCSC) came roaring back with its first post-pandemic Ribfest, held Wednesday, March 1 at Chapala's lakefront Villa Encantada events center.

A full house of around 400 guests relished tucking into the sumptuous BBQ ribs catered by Adelita Bar and Grill and dancing to the golden oldie tunes of Los Romeos band during the Shriners' main annual fundraising event.

Special guests in attendance included this year's LCSC poster boy Immer Rodríguez Macias and his family, and scores of Shriners visiting Chapala from different parts of Mexico.

More than a dozen of those in the dining crowd walked away with vouchers for door prizes donated by local restaurants and other businesses, and one lucky ticket holder was awarded 11,350 pesos in cash for a cut in the sellout 50/50 raffle.

All proceeds went into the Shrine Club kitty to support disabled children from the lakeside area.

The Shriners International pediatric healthcare system operates 18 hospitals and medical centers in the United States, plus one in Mexico City and another in Montreal, Canada. The Mexico City facility ranks number one in patient care, serving an average of 80,000 youngsters per year who require specialized treatment for orthopedic conditions and burn injuries.

Last year, LCSC funding covered travel expenses to the Mexico City hospital for 76 patients and their families, as well as local treatments for two more youngsters. Expenditures totaled 440,250 pesos. Since 2006 the local club has spent more than 5.5 million pesos aiding 2,358 children and adolescents afflicted with diverse disabilities.

Los Romeos played favorite golden oldies to get the Ribfest crowd up and dancing throughout the afternoon.

Expert mandolinist Jan Reimers has performed weekly at the Huerto for about a year, accompanied by several of the area's best talents; now he joins forces with newcomer multi-instrumentalist Jeffree White, who founded and led bluegrass collective Train River and gypsy jazz group Hot Club of Hawthorne in Portland, OR.

Expect a mix of instrumental & vocal music, with different flavors inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, beautiful waltzes, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'!

33 VARIATIONS by Moisés Kaufman

directed by Suki O'Brien

March 24 - April 2, 2023

Underwritten by Sandra Jakubek in memory of Peggy Lord
Chilton

In parallel tales of obsession, musicologist Katherine Brandt attempts to uncover the motivation behind Beethoven's Diabelli Variations, a series of 33 variations on an ordinary waltz by a composer he felt was beneath him.

Performance Dates: March 24 - April 2, 2023

Evenings 7:30 p.m.

Matinees 4:00 p.m. on March 25, 26, April 1 & 2

(No show on Monday, March 27)

NEW FEATURE AT LLT

Hearing assistance is now available for use during our shows. First come, first served. A deposit of 500 pesos is required, which will be refunded to you when you return the headset.

Enquire at the box office upon arrival at LLT for the show.

Front: Rob Stupple, Randy Warren, Ken Yakiwchuk
Rear: Ricardo del Toro, Diana Rowland, M.A.Bruneau, Donna Burroughs

About the Play

A mother coming to terms with her daughter. A composer coming to terms with his genius. And, even though they're separated by 200 years, these two people share an obsession that might, even just for a moment, make time stand still. Drama, memory and music combine to transport you from present-day New York to nineteenth-century Austria in this extraordinary American play about passion, parenthood and the moments of beauty that can transform a life.

Tickets for 33 Variations are 350 pesos – you can get them by:

- Visiting the LLT box office one hour before curtain on all performance days, or 10 a.m. to noon, Wednesdays and Thursdays, during the week the show opens and the week of performance (March 22 & 23 as well as March 29 & 30).
