there is NO music.

Local bands and musicians MATTER.

SUPPORT THEM.

And that is the whole truth...
And nothing but the truth!

And we have some real great ones right here in our sunny little paradise on the northwest shore of beautiful Lake Chapala!

Great musicians, singers, bands, dancers, actors and actresses, production people and great venues for them to entertain you in... lots going on... enjoy!

Regards,

Francis

Entitled "American Landscapes" this is the first of 2 concerts this year that feature the orchestra's chamber ensemble. We will have 13 of our players on stage presenting several works by Leonard Bernstein, Antonin Dvorak and Aaron Copland. The major piece will be Copland's Appalachian Spring in a rare performance of the original version for 13 instruments.

Since we announced this event, at our concert last weekend, we have already taken reservations for over 180 tickets and the performance on Saturday May 6 is virtually SOLD OUT! We have 90 tickets remaining for the concert on Friday May 5 at 7pm. Once again I urge you to reserve your tickets now so as to avoid disappointment as we will not be mounting an additional concert this time. All you have to do is reply to this email stating which performance and how many tickets you would like. Reserve your seats! Later this month we will have a ticket pick up day. LLT Academy Presents

Stage Management: The Most Rewarding & Challenging Job (in theatre) Led by Win McIntosh

This three-session workshop is for those who are interested in learning the ins and outs of stage management. Although a somewhat fluid line of work, in essence the stage manager is responsible for organizing the production, communicating across different disciplines (e.g., between the director and the backstage crew, or the actors and production management), and keeping everything running smoothly. This refers not only to seamless management of the technical aspects of a production, but of the human aspects as well.

The course is limited to 8 participants.

- Monday, May 1, 2023
- Tuesday, May 2, 2023
