

Sometimes too Loud!... But there are NO TAPS

Sometimes the accoustics of a room or auditorium are bad, sometimes there is no one in the band that can adjust things properly and sometimes the band is just too darn loud!

I notice here in Mexico some of the bands tend to use way too much reverberation and things sound almost tinny but one thing for sure... There are no taps!!

I've been in some shows where the "table talk" drowns out the entertainers... they belong in a place with no entertainment... this also tends to get the band turning things up a crank or two which never works out well for anyone.

If it is too loud it's probably best to just move on!

Expert mandolinist Jan Reimers and multi-instrumentalist Jeffree White share a love of bluegrass, but also much more music than that! They present a variety of instrumental & vocal music, inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, exotic waltzes, Latin rhythms, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'!

Hello Chapala Music Fans,

I know this is late notification, but we will be hosting a House Concert as part of our Concierto en La Terraza on February 15 at 4 pm here at Casa Doverlaff.

This concert will feature Ruth and Max Bloomquist, a folk music duo from Michigan. Ruth is an award winning songwriter in the modern folk style one might have encountered on Prairie Home Companion.

Suggested donation will be 200 pesos. Snack will be available., Beer and wine will be available for which we suggest a modest donation.

Be sure to let us know if you plan to attend as we will need to know the numbers.

You can reply to this invite, email me at ddoer2@earthlink.net or reach me through WhatsApp, text message, Facebook Messenger or by the old fashion telephone, 503.730.3189.

Becky McGuigan and Dan Dover will open.

Hope to see you at this fine show.
