At least I hope it won't!

What would I do with myself three or four nights a week or on Sunday nights... long after most have gone to bed... doing up this entertainment guide for the following week.

Don't get me wrong!... I'm not complaining... I actually enjoy doing it for you the musicians and performers, for you the great operators of the venues, for you the fundraisers and of course the audience! As I have known for years and it should be the axiom for all performers... without an audience?... there is NO SHOW!

I truly miss playing but I really appreciate getting asked to sit in for a few tunes and the recognition I receive by the wonderful people who read this circular... thank you all!

Tuesdays noon-2pm

at the Huerto Cafe: Hidalgo 212 in Riberas del Pilar

Expert mandolinist Jan Reimers and multi-instrumentalist Jeffree White share a love of bluegrass, but also much more music than that! They present a variety of instrumental & vocal music, inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, exotic waltzes, Latin rhythms, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'! You can find several videos in a playlist on YouTube (search band name or our names).

Last chance to see this week!!!

It's a story as old as humanity: long-buried memories never really stay buried -- and this Freudian "return of the repressed" is the psychological and emotional engine powering Arthur Miller's "The Price," a dramatic master-class in its creation of character and use of symbolism. Stashed away and half-forgotten, an imposing collection of unwanted family furniture must finally be disposed of, as the aging Manhattan brownstone in which it has been stored is slated for demolition. So two estranged brothers are abruptly compelled to confront this mouldering family legacy, somehow 'resolve' its undesired persistence in their lives. But the furniture is the least of their issues. Four outstanding actors under highly experienced co-directors
