“Bluegrass & Beyond” w/ Jeffree White & Jan Reimers

duo w/ guitar, mandolin & vocals

Tuesdays noon-2pm

at the Huerto Cafe; Hidalgo 212 in Riberas del Pilar

Expert mandolinist Jan Reimers and multi-instrumentalist Jeffree White share a love of bluegrass, but also much more music than that! They present a variety of instrumental & vocal music, inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, exotic waltzes, Latin rhythms, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'! You can find several videos in a playlist on YouTube (search band name or our names).

The eight-piece rock and roll band The Romeos will add a high-tempo beat to your love life the night of Feb. 14 with a dinner and dancing benefit concert at Scallions in Ajijic for Mama Cleo's Boys Home. The band, led by the ever-so versatile Venezuelan Lorenzo Enrique Elmo—or simply “Elmo”—will play its signature heart of rock and roll and super danceable Latin rock for a Valentine's evening party for a cause.

Amore e Desiderio

Italian Baroque resounds in this concert where love and desire transcend centuries from Palestrina, Vivaldi, Pärt, and ABBA. Through a captivating dialogue of eras, the program alternates between the opulent intricacies of Baroque masterpieces and the poignant simplicity of contemporary works. Each piece, whether steeped in ornate elegance or modern lyricism, tells a story of yearning, passion, and connection that defies time.

Two extraordinary violinists, Nancy Zhou and Jeremy Bell, bring this vision to life, weaving virtuosic brilliance with emotional depth. Amore e Desiderio invites you to experience an unforgettable evening where music bridges centuries and speaks to the soul.

Set in the context of the Spanish Inquisition, Man of La Mancha is presented as a play-within-a-play. We encounter historical author Miguel de Cervantes in prison, awaiting trial by the Inquisition. When his fellow prisoners try to take Cervantes' belongings from him, including his manuscript, Cervantes proposes a trial in which he proves the merit of the manuscript through a reenactment, enlisting his fellow prisoners as characters in his play. Together, they tell the story of the aged Alonso Quijana who believes himself to be a knight errant, names himself Don Quixote, and pursues an obsessive quest to attain an impossible dream. Against all odds, Quixote and his trusty squire Sancho Panza take to the road in a quest to chivalry, and seek out the good and innocent in a world filled with darkness and despair. Through the story, all the prisoners – at least for a moment – are transformed.

Man of La Mancha features such stirring songs as "I, Don Quixote", "Dulcinea" and the now-famous standard, "Quest" – more famously known as "The Impossible Dream."

The original 1965 Broadway production ran for 2,328 performances and won five Tony Awards, including Best Musical. The musical has been revived four times on Broadway, becoming one of the most enduring works of musical theatre
