You REALLY must see this one!

A fabulous performance by these gals... super fun and super funny. Right from the opening number and even including the (last of the many) standing ovations... the joyful laughing was thunderous (that means loud)!

The gals singing (or "shopping" I should say as the whole show took place at Bloomingdale's) absolutely blew me away (and remember I played for money in front of people for 68 years!).

The gals in the chorus were outstanding too... lots and lots of fun and laughs.

Admiringly,

Francis

DON'T MISS THIS MUSICAL!

The laughter-filled 90-minute production gets audience members out of their seats dancing and singing along to parodies from classic pop songs of the 60s, 70s and 80s.

Read the rave audience reviews below!

MENOPAUSE THE MUSICAL, book and lyrics by Jeanie Linders, is a comedic and uplifting show about four disparate women who bond over their shared experiences of menopause while shopping at a department store sale, using parodies of classic 1960s, 70s, and 80s pop songs to tell their stories of hot flashes, memory loss, and changing bodies.

AUDITION INFORMATION

Welcome to the Renaissance, where the Black Plague has ceded power to the Puritans, farthingales and codpieces are the latest fashion trend, and the biggest celebrity in England is a playwright named William Shakespeare. In the midst of all this excitement, brothers Nick and Nigel Bottom are trying to keep their acting company afloat. In a desperate attempt to out-Bard the Bard, Nick consults with a soothsayer, who informs him that the future of theatre involves acting, singing, and dancing -- sometimes all at once! As the Bottom brothers strive to write the world's very first "musical", they find themselves caught in a bitter battle with the Bard and the play's the thing. Something Rotten! is a hysterical, joyous celebration of everything you love about Broadway.

PLACE & TIME: London, England, 1590's

NICK BOTTOM: tenor, baritone

NIGEL BOTTOM: tenor.

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE: tenor

THOMAS NOSTRADAMUS: tenor, baritone
